

Tour Rules and Regulations 2022

1. Eligibility

TP TOUR events are open to players from the U.K and overseas. Evidence of playing ability may be required for those who've not previously competed in a TP TOUR event. We reserve the right to refuse entry to any applicant.

2. Membership

Applications are online www.tptourseries.com

Most events will have a first come first served policy. However, for others the Categories listed below may be applied if an event is over-subscribed.

1. TPT Winners
2. Sponsor invites
3. TOUR Members
5. Non-members

3. Tournament Entry, Withdrawals, Fees

Entries are on a first come first served basis at www.tptourseries.com. If a player withdraws from an event, the entry fee will be chargeable, unless mitigating circumstances apply, for example an invitation to play in a Challenge Tour event or another world ranking event. A medical certification of an injury that would render the player incapable of competing, or an illness verified by a medical certificate. If a non-member withdraws for any reason the entry fee is chargeable. If any player no shows for an event without notice, a fine will be charged in addition to the full entry fee. If a player has to withdraw for any reason prior to the start of an event, a withdrawal fee is applicable. Withdrawal fees are not subject to appeal.

- Tournament entry fees are published on the Tour Web Site. A player is only registered when their entry fee has been processed fully and they have received official notification for the relevant event, entries are payable electronically.
- Late entries may be subject to a £20.00 admin fee

- * Team events and Qualifiers will feature on the schedule on a first come first served policy
- * Other invitations are offered to members of the TP TOUR
- * Pro Am events – professionals invited to participate in pro-ams will be contacted directly by the TOUR office

4. Amateur Entries and Female Competitors

Amateur entrants with a handicap of ONE or better can apply, evidence of an official handicap is required. Amateurs finishing in the prizes of any TP TOUR event are able to win a money prize up to a limit of £700 GBP in line with the R&A rules on amateur status. Amateurs who intend to turn professional to compete in a TP event as a professional golfer, are advised to submit confirmation of their intention to turn professional to their county union office or national golfing amateur union and may be required to provide evidence.

Female professional golfers are welcome and can apply to play the TP TOUR. The tournament golf course may be adjusted for female competitors at the discretion of the TOUR committee. A standard of 10% distance reduction may apply or a stroke allowance of two strokes or more, may be applied

5. Field Size

Final field sizes are based on the allocation at each event, this may be limited to a pre-determined number.

6. Prize Fund

Prize Money is awarded to players who finish in the top 25% of the field of any regular OOM tournament. Prize funds are based on the final field and any additional sponsorship. Prize money is calculated by the TOUR committee on site at each event, prize money is paid by direct bank transfer to TP TOUR members within 48 hours of each event. Non-members of the TOUR may be paid within 72 hours.

The Official Order of Merit [OOM] is based on points earned in any TP TOUR official event or co-sanctioned event. If a points tie occurs, prize money earned will determine the overall winner and grand prize if applicable.

7. Format and Starting

Tournaments will be conducted by scratch contests of 18 or 36 holes of stroke play, unless otherwise stated on the event notice to players. In the event of a tie for first place, a hole by hole sudden death playoff will be used to determine the winner. If a playoff is not possible the event will have joint winners, or an alternative format may be decided by the Tournament Director.

Late on the tee: The player must start at the time notified. A competitor must be present on the tee box of their designated starting hole at least five minutes before their scheduled tee time. If the player arrives at his starting hole ready to play, within five minutes after his starting time, penalty for failure to start on time is two strokes at the first hole. After five minutes, the penalty for breach of this Rule is disqualification. The clocks on the starting tee are the "Official Time."

8. Conditions of Competition and Local Rules

Section A Conditions of Competition

The TP TOUR 'Official Hard Card' Local Rules and COC will be supplied to all competitors. Additional local rules pertaining to each individual tournament will be supplied where applicable by officials, on the tee or at registration at each venue.

Tournaments will be played under the Rules of Golf, as published by R&A Rules Limited. For the full text of Conditions or Local Rules, please refer to the referenced page number in the Rules of Golf.

Any doubtful points or disputes must be referred to a TOUR Referee or official immediately upon completion of play, prior to scorecards being signed. The Tournament Director's decision is final.
